A BUOY'S CALLING

I went to fish, my secret spot
Out at A Buoy, you catch the lot
Snapper, Kingi, Gurnard too
Always fish there, just for you

Time slides by, fall asleep
Into my mind, nightmares creep
Hooking marlin, in my small boat
Caught so many, struggles to float

It starts to sink, I start to scream
Then I wake, it was but a dream
Still no fish, still no bites
Guided home, by flickering lights

Life jacket on, gear stowed away
That's fishing over, for another day
Never wasted, a day at sea
Back to A Buoy, for my TEA
